Certificate II in Skills for Work and Vocational Pathways

COURSE OVERVIEW

- The FSK20113 Certificate II in Skills for Work and Vocational Pathways qualification is designed for individuals who require further foundation skills development to prepare for workforce entry or vocational training pathways.
- This qualification is also suitable for people who wish to improve their reading, writing, numeracy and oral communication ability and develop basic Information, Communication and Technology skills. The program is ideal for Job Seekers who wish to enter a Vocational Pathway, but need to build confidence and acquire additional skills.

- The course is fully accredited nationally recognised training.

AUSTRALIAN COLLEGE OF SKILLS AND EDUCATION

COURSE ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

- There are no formal entry requirements for this course.
- Prospective learners are expected to be able to pass a Language, Literacy and Numeracy assessment to determine their ability to enrol in the program.
- The program does not require you to have any pre-existing computer or technology skills.

DURATION & STRUCTURE

- The course combines face to face classroom based learning and assessment and some self paced study. You will have up to 6 months to complete your training.
- Weekly sessions consist of 5 days face to face in a classroom based environment for a minimum of three weeks, learning the underpinning theoretical components and required knowledge.
- Candidates may also elect to study the program in its entirety by distance learning, commencing anytime and working flexibly at their own pace. This is called supported distance learning, as you will have access to a trainer via the student portal as required. To do this, students will be required to study at least 21 hours a week or 83 hours per month.

POTENTIAL JOB ROLES

- This qualification is not designed to equate to a specific career or employment outcome, yet it may assist in creating opportunities across a wide range of industries and job roles.
- This qualification is designed to provide the skills and confidence needed to start an individual on a formal study pathway, which will be linked to future employment outcomes.
- The course provides:
a prevocational pathway to employment and vocational training
